

NO to allowing banks to be an exception to Indiana's NO-CALL list. I pay for the service of having a phone. Only I should have the right to say who can use my service. Using a bank is also a service that the public pays for. This is an invasion of the public's privacy at home.